UNDER 1.137(c)

Commission for Patents
P O Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Applicants petition for revival of the instant unintentionally-abandoned application under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b). Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)(1-4), Applicants file with this petition statement:

- (1) a check for $1215.00 including the petition fee of $750.00 under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(m),
- (2) an amendment after final rejection under 37 C.F.R. § 1.116,

25611501.1

(3) a showing that the entire period of delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b) was unintentional,

(4) a petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.183, including the fee under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(h), demonstrating an extraordinary situation in which justice requires waiver of the terminal disclaimer requirements of 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(d),

(5) a request for a refund of the filing fee for a Request for Continued Examination, and

(6) a terminal disclaimer required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(d) conditioned on denial of the above listed petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.183.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)(3), Applicant submits that the abandonment of the instant application was unintentional. Specifically, Applicant mistakenly filed an Request for Continued Examination, rather than a continuation application, in response to a Final Rejection dated September 8, 2003. (See attached EXHIBIT A). The USPTO did not realize the error either and continued examination through to allowance. Applicant paid the issue fee July 29, 2005. Thus, the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b) was unintentional. Applicant respectfully requests the USPTO revive the abandoned application and accept the co-submitted amendment after final rejection. The amendment should bring the specification and claims into the previously allowed form.

Applicant further petitions under 37 C.F.R. § 1.183 for waiver of the terminal disclaimer normally required by 37 C.F.R. § 1.37(d). The terminal disclaimer may be waived in “extraordinary” circumstances in the interest of “justice.” An example of such circumstances is when the abandonment of the application caused no actual delay in prosecution. See MPEP

711.03(c)(II)(G). Applicant submits that the instant application falls within this recognized exception and respectfully requests the Commissioner waive the terminal disclaimer requirement. The MPEP clearly states:

In the event that an applicant considers the requirement for a terminal disclaimer to be inappropriate under the circumstances of the application at issue, the applicant should file a petition under 37 CFR 1.183 (and petition fee) to request a waiver of this requirement of 37 CFR 1.183. Such a petition may request waiver of this requirement in toto, or to the extent that such requirement exceeds the period considered by applicant as the appropriate period of disclaimer. The grant of such a petition, however, is strictly limited to situations wherein applicant has made a showing of an "extraordinary situation" in which "justice requires" the requested relief. An example of such a situation is when the abandonment of the application caused no actual delay in prosecution (e.g., an application awaiting decision by the Board of Appeals and Interferences during period of abandonment).

MPEP 711.03(c)(II)(G) (emphasis added).

Prosecution was closed on April 29, 2005, the date the Notice of Allowance was issued. Therefore, no part of the entire period of the abandonment of the application caused any delay in prosecution. Therefore, the facts of the present case fit exactly in the MPEP's express example of when a terminal disclaimer should be waived. Therefore, applicants respectfully petition that the requirement for a terminal disclaimer be waived.

Applicant also requests, under 37 CFR 1.26, a refund of the Request for Continued Examination filing fee mistakenly paid. (See EXHIBIT A, pg 2). Please deposit the refund in Fulbright & Jaworski Deposit Account No. 06-2375.

Applicant is submitting a terminal disclaimer required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(d) for completeness of the petition to revive. This disclaimer is expressly conditioned on denial of the petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.183 to waive the disclaimer requirement. Should the terminal disclaimer be waived, please refund the $65.00 fee to Fulbright & Jaworski Deposit Account No. 06-2375.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(m) the revival petition fee of $750.00 has been included. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(f) the petition for suspension of the rules fee of $400.00 is also enclosed. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.20(d) a terminal disclaimer filing fee of $65.00 is enclosed. Should any other fees be due, or the attached fee be deficient or absent, the Commissioner is authorized to withdraw the appropriate fee from Fulbright & Jaworski Deposit Account No. 06-2375 (P01525US0), from which the undersigned is authorized to draw.

Please date stamp and return the enclosed postcard to evidence receipt of this document.

Respectfully submitted,

: NOTICE OF ABANDONMENT

Background:

Applicants filed a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114 on March 9, 2004 in the above-identified application, which is the National Stage of an international application filed on June 7, 1995. The RCE was improper because the provisions of 37 CFR 1.114 do not apply to an international application filed under 35 U.S.C. 363 before June 8, 1995. See 37 CFR 1.114(e)(3).

A request for continued examination is not a type of new application filing. See Request for Continued Examination Practice and Changes to Provisional Application Practice, Final Rule, 65 Fed. Reg. 50092, 50097 (August 16, 2000). The Office cannot convert an improper RCE to an application, such as a continuing application under 37 CFR 1.53(b) or (d). An improper RCE will not operate to toll the running of any time period set in the previous Office action for reply to avoid abandonment of the application. See Manual for Patent Examining Procedure (MPEP) 706.07(h), page 700-70, subsection III.A., "Treatment of Improper RCE", (8th Ed. 2001).

In the instant case, a final Office action was mailed on September 8, 2003. Under 35 U.S.C. § 133, an applicant has six (6) months to reply to an Office action. Upon failure to prosecute the application within six months of notice of the Office action, the application shall be regarded as abandoned. This statutory requirement may not be waived by the Office. The filing of the improper RCE on March 9, 2004 did not toll the time period set forth in the Office action mailed on September 8, 2003. Thus, the application became abandoned on March 9, 2004 for the failure to reply to the Office action mailed on September 8, 2003.

The Office mistakenly treated the improper RCE as a proper RCE and allowed examination of the application to continue. A non-final Office action was mailed May 26, 2004. An Amendment was filed September 2, 2004. An Ex Parte Quayle Action was mailed November 17, 2004. A Response After Ex Parte Quayle Action, drawings, and an Amendment were filed January 27, 2005. A Notice of Allowance and a Notice of Allowability were mailed on April 29, 2005, and the Issue fee was received on July 29, 2005. The Office regrets the delay in notifying Applicants of this error.

The application has been withdrawn from issue to process as an abandoned application.

Applicants may file a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) to revive the application within two (2) months from the date of this Notice. This time period may not be extended. Applicants may request a refund of the RCE fees.
